Dear Mr. Cardone:

The Clerk's office is in receipt of the above referenced letter (copy enclosed and returned herewith).

In order for such papers to be accepted for filing in each case for consideration by the Court, they should be in the form of either a pleading or motion pursuant to Federal Rule Civil Procedure 7, seeking specific relief, and must reflect service on defendants' counsel, when applicable. Consequently, the Court will not act on your papers in their present form.

Nothing contained in this letter is intended to express an opinion as to the merits of any claim which you might be alleging.

Sincerely,

PETER T. DALLO

RE: Civil Action No. 5 06-151 KAT
 06-152 KAT
 06-177 KAT

Dear Mr. Dalles,

KAT has ordered me to forward to the Court in 30 days $70.16 for each of the above actions, by my figuring that comes to $210.48... that amount is above and beyond 20% of $350.00. Furthermore, I haven't had $350.00 in my prison account since the end of November, 2005. At present, I have less than $100.00 in that same account. Last week I shelled out $30.00 to Justice of the Peace Court #9 in Middletown, DE, to pay for filing fees for an action in that court? so I may be reimbursed by this prison for stealing $200.00 from my account here in this DCC prison. That action is pending. Perhaps you could use the $250.00 I paid to have 06-05-0600 consolidated and/or dismissed without prejudice KAT into 05-0536 KAT? No matter how you slice it, my inability to pay for filing fees must not stop these actions I have filed, and the Court has accepted, from going forth... am I correct? — I expect your response to be considerably more than your usual responses as evidenced by your enclosed Oct. 12, 2005, letter to me.

— Why does the 3rd Circuit assign Case Managers for pro se litigants and state district courts do not?

Sincerely,
